The authors should make the payment before the conference. The contribution is $20 for publication of three pages and less in the conference collection, 1 copy of conference collection, and mail postage of the collection to absentee participants. Each extra page costs $5 (7 pages maximum).

The cost of publication in the magazine, included in the Scopus is 120 $ for an article (volume - 3 pages).

The contribution can be paid in organizing committee during the registration.

Students' papers are published free for publication of three pages and less in the conference collection. Each extra page costs $5 (7 pages maximum).

All participants have an opportunity to present their tourist and excursion programmes during the conference; in this case you should inform the organizing committee beforehand.

For booking a hotel room you should apply to the organizing committee of the conference.

Call for papers: the papers should be presented in. Sheet size – A4, margined 2 cm from every quarter. The title must be printed in upper-case letters in bold type, Times New Roman, 12-point type aligned to the center. The author's family name and initials are printed lower in one line spacing with lower-case letters, in italics, 12-point type, and the full name of organization and the city separated by commas. The abstract (3-5 lines) and key words (3-5) are printed in one line spacing.

The text is to be printed lower in one line spacing in single spacing with indentation of 1 cm, justified alignment, 12-point type without hyphenation. After the text in one line spacing the 'works cited' or 'bibliography' is printed in bold type aligned to the center, 12-point type. It is printed in alphabetical order or in order of reference in the paper, 12-point type (see the sample below).

Graphics should be drawn in black-and-white shot (the collection will be made in grey gradation), pictures should be put in the text. The pictures names and numbers are coming under the pictures, and the tables – above the tables. The references to the works should be in square brackets, and to the pictures and tables – in parentheses.

The paper content should be not less 2 and not more 7 pages (including works cited, tables and pictures).

The application form for the conference participation is to be sent by a separate file in Microsoft Office Word: Ivanov-application form.doc. The paper text is to be sent in another file titled Ivanov-paper.doc. When the materials are received, the organizing committee will send you the notification. Those, who have sent the materials but have not received the notification, should duplicate the sending. The conference collection delivery is to be started in December 2014.

The organizing committee reserves the right to decline the materials which are inadequate or not corresponded to the conference topics.

The requirements for the publication of an article for publication in the database journal Scopus:

the page size should be A4;

each page should have clear margins of 4cm (top), 2.5cm (left and right) and 2.7cm (bottom);

pages should not contain page numbers, running heads or footlines;

all articles must contain an abstract;

in the Microsoft Office Word, all fonts should be embedded.

Layout of the title page The title should be followed by a list of all authors' names and their affiliations. The style for the names is initials (no periods) followed by the family name. The authors' affiliations follow the author list. If there is more than one address then a superscripted number should come at the start of each address; each author should also have a superscripted number or numbers following their name to indicate which address, or addresses, are the appropriate ones for them. E-mail addresses may be given for any or all of the authors. The abstract follows the list of addresses. The abstract text should be indented 25 mm from the left margin. As the abstract is not part of the text it should be complete in itself; no table numbers, figure numbers, references or displayed mathematical expressions should be included. It should be suitable for direct inclusion in abstracting services.

The text The text of your article should start on the same page as the abstract. Any Acknowledgments should be placed immediately after the last numbered section of the paper, and any appendices after the Acknowledgments section. The length limit will be provided by the conference organizer.

Figures and tables Figures and tables should be numbered serially and positioned (centred on the width of the page) close to where they are mentioned in the text, not grouped together at the end. Each figure and table should have a brief explanatory caption.

Colour figures. There are no restrictions on the use of colour in the online version of your article. However, you should bear in mind that any print version of your article is likely to be in black and white which may make coloured lines difficult to distinguish. 4. Supplementary data We are happy for authors to submit supplementary data attachments to enhance the online versions of published articles. Supplementary data enhancements typically consist of video clips, animations or supplementary data such as data files, tables of extra information or extra figures.

References. Online references will be linked to their original source or to the article within a secondary service such as INSPEC or ChemPort wherever possible. To facilitate this linking extra care should be taken
